Support St Leonard's
Hospice with one simple act this October and bring a pound to work

Thank you for making a difference this Hospice Care Week!

Bring a Pound to Work Day is back! Years ago, this simple fundraising event brought businesses and organisations together to support their local hospice. In 2026, we're bringing it back as part of Hospice Care Week, giving workplaces like yours across York and the surrounding area the opportunity to come together and show their support.

You can choose any day during Hospice Care Week to hold your Bring a Pound to Work Day. However, we'll be shining a special spotlight on Thursday 8 October, when our team will be out and about visiting and calling as many participating workplaces as possible to celebrate your fundraising efforts and say thank you.

Helping you get started

Inside this pack, you'll find everything you need to make your fundraiser a success, including fundraising ideas, promotional materials and guidance on how to collect and donate your funds.

Getting involved couldn't be easier.

Register your workplace. Sign up at stleonardshospice.org.uk/BringAPound Spread the word. Encourage your colleagues to bring along £1 and support their local hospice.

Collect your donations. Whether you're collecting cash or donating online, we'll provide everything you need to make taking part as simple as possible. If you'd like to set up an online fundraising page, visit justgiving.com/campaign/BringAPound and select the 'Fundraise for us' button. When you connect your page to St Leonard's Hospice, we'll receive your donations automatically, so you don't need to worry. Make sure to personalise your page and include photos from the day, too!

Does your organisation offer match funding?

If you're not sure, why not ask at work?
You have nothing to lose and potentially an extra 50% of what your company raises to gain!

Whether you're a small local business, a school, a community group or a major employer, every workplace can make a difference this October. Together, those £1 donations soon add up, helping St Leonard's Hospice continue to provide expert palliative and end-of-life care to local people across our community.

Frequently asked questions

We're only a small team. Is it still worth us taking part?

Absolutely! Bring a Pound to Work Day is all about businesses of all sizes coming together to support St Leonard's Hospice. Every pound makes a big difference, and whether you're a team of two or two hundred, your support means we can continue being there for people when they need us most.

October isn't great for us. Can we choose another month instead?

Of course! Whilst October is our focus for Bring a Pound to Work Day in 2026, we understand that some dates may not work for every workplace. You're welcome to choose a different day that suits your team, and we'd still be delighted to have your support.

None of our staff bring cash to work. How can we take part?

No cash? No problem! You can set up your online fundraising page using the instructions on the previous page and invite colleagues to donate digitally. This is especially useful for teams working remotely or across multiple locations.

Alternatively, donations can be made directly to St Leonard's Hospice via our website: stleonardshospice.org.uk/donate. Just remember to mention 'Bring a Pound to Work Day' when donating.

Are we able to get customers involved as well?

Definitely. If you're a customer-facing business, we'd love for you to invite your customers to join in and donate their pound, too. The more people who get involved, the more funds we can raise to support patients and their families.
